

AN EXPLORATION & PROSPECTING COMPANY

HEADQUARTERED IN MINNEAPOLIS, MINNESOTA

ABOUT US

F3 Gold is a small private gold prospecting and exploration company based out of Minnesota. Our focus is on updating the geologic model in pursuit of gold in the Black Hills region of South Dakota. F3 Gold is owned and operated by two successful, young and motivated geologic entrepreneurs with a passion for science and the outdoors. We are proud to operate with sound environmental stewardship and social responsibility in our pursuit of mineral discoveries. All of our exploration activities are conducted in strict accordance with State and Federal regulations.

OUR APPROACH

SAFETY FIRST

Our highly trained and certified team ensures all projects follow an industry-leading safety protocol and meet all State and Federal compliance standards.

ENVIRONMENTAL STEWARDSHIP

Our long-term vision and care for ecosystems drive our commitment to sustainable business practices and ethical decision-making.

LOCAL PARTNERS & INVESTMENT

We build partnerships that utilize local talent and resources, ensuring growth and investment in local communities.

HIRE LOCAL & SUPPORT STUDENTS

We hire well-qualified local personnel whenever possible, and partner with Universities to create learn-work opportunities for students.

THE PROJECT

F3 Gold's project is located in the Black Hills region of South Dakota. We have been focused on re-developing the geologic model to explore for gold throughout the Black Hills district. Our interest and research in this region began in university and has continued ever since. The project takes a district-scale approach to understanding the geology and relationships to gold throughout the entire Black Hills.
